IMPORTANT NOTICE

for all Chiropractors and Osteopaths

You have a choice!

Under the revised Department of Veteran Affairs (DVA) Continuing Education (CE) requirements, all contracted chiropractors and osteopaths are required to meet the continuing education requirements of either the Chiropractic & Osteopathic College of Australasia (COCA), the Chiropractors Association of Australia (CAA) or the Australian Osteopathic Association (AOA), regardless of their membership of these bodies.

Furthermore, under the new model the onus is on the individual chiropractor or osteopath to meet the continuing education requirement and to submit a Certificate of Compliance to the DVA. In order to obtain your Certificate of Compliance you must nominate at least one of the three organisations to accredit and record your continuing education programs, but be aware that all three organisations have different requirements or guidelines.

COCA is the largest single chiropractic and osteopathic continuing education provider in Australia and you do not have to be a member to nominate COCA as your CE accrediting and recording agency. If you wish COCA to be your recording and accrediting agency for the period 1st Jan '08 to 31st Dec '09 please complete the form below and forward it to COCA together with your payment no later than 1st MAY '08.
